CAUSE

David Johnson has had positive urinalysis tests for marijuana on February 15, 2006, March 3, 8 and 15, 2006. Mr. Johnson admits to using marijuana and is requesting assistance. He is currently attending intensive outpatient drug counseling. He has also obtained employment with West Corporation performing telephone solicitation for various other companies. Mr. Johnson indicates he previously was employed with a company that sells meat door to door. The other employees were using marijuana and he admits to being influenced by them. He realized that with the other workers using marijuana, he could not stay with this employer, so he quit that job. He then became discouraged with his employment search and continued to use marijuana. He was also recently in a car accident and now has to
